How Could I Have Grown So Much In Just One Year?

GROWTH

But to act, that each tomorrow finds us
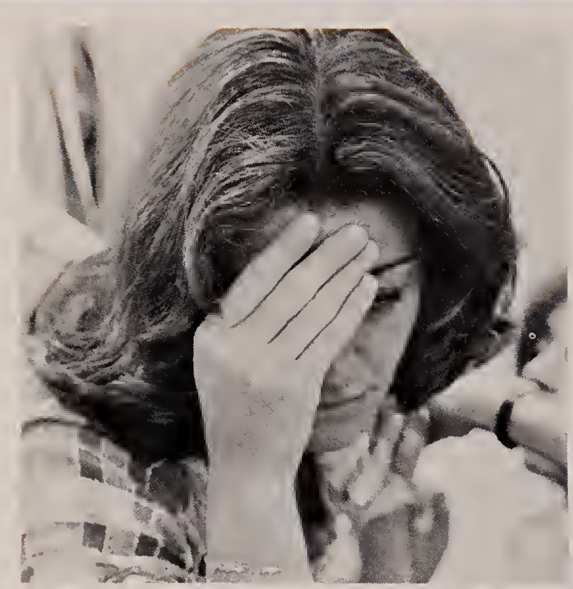
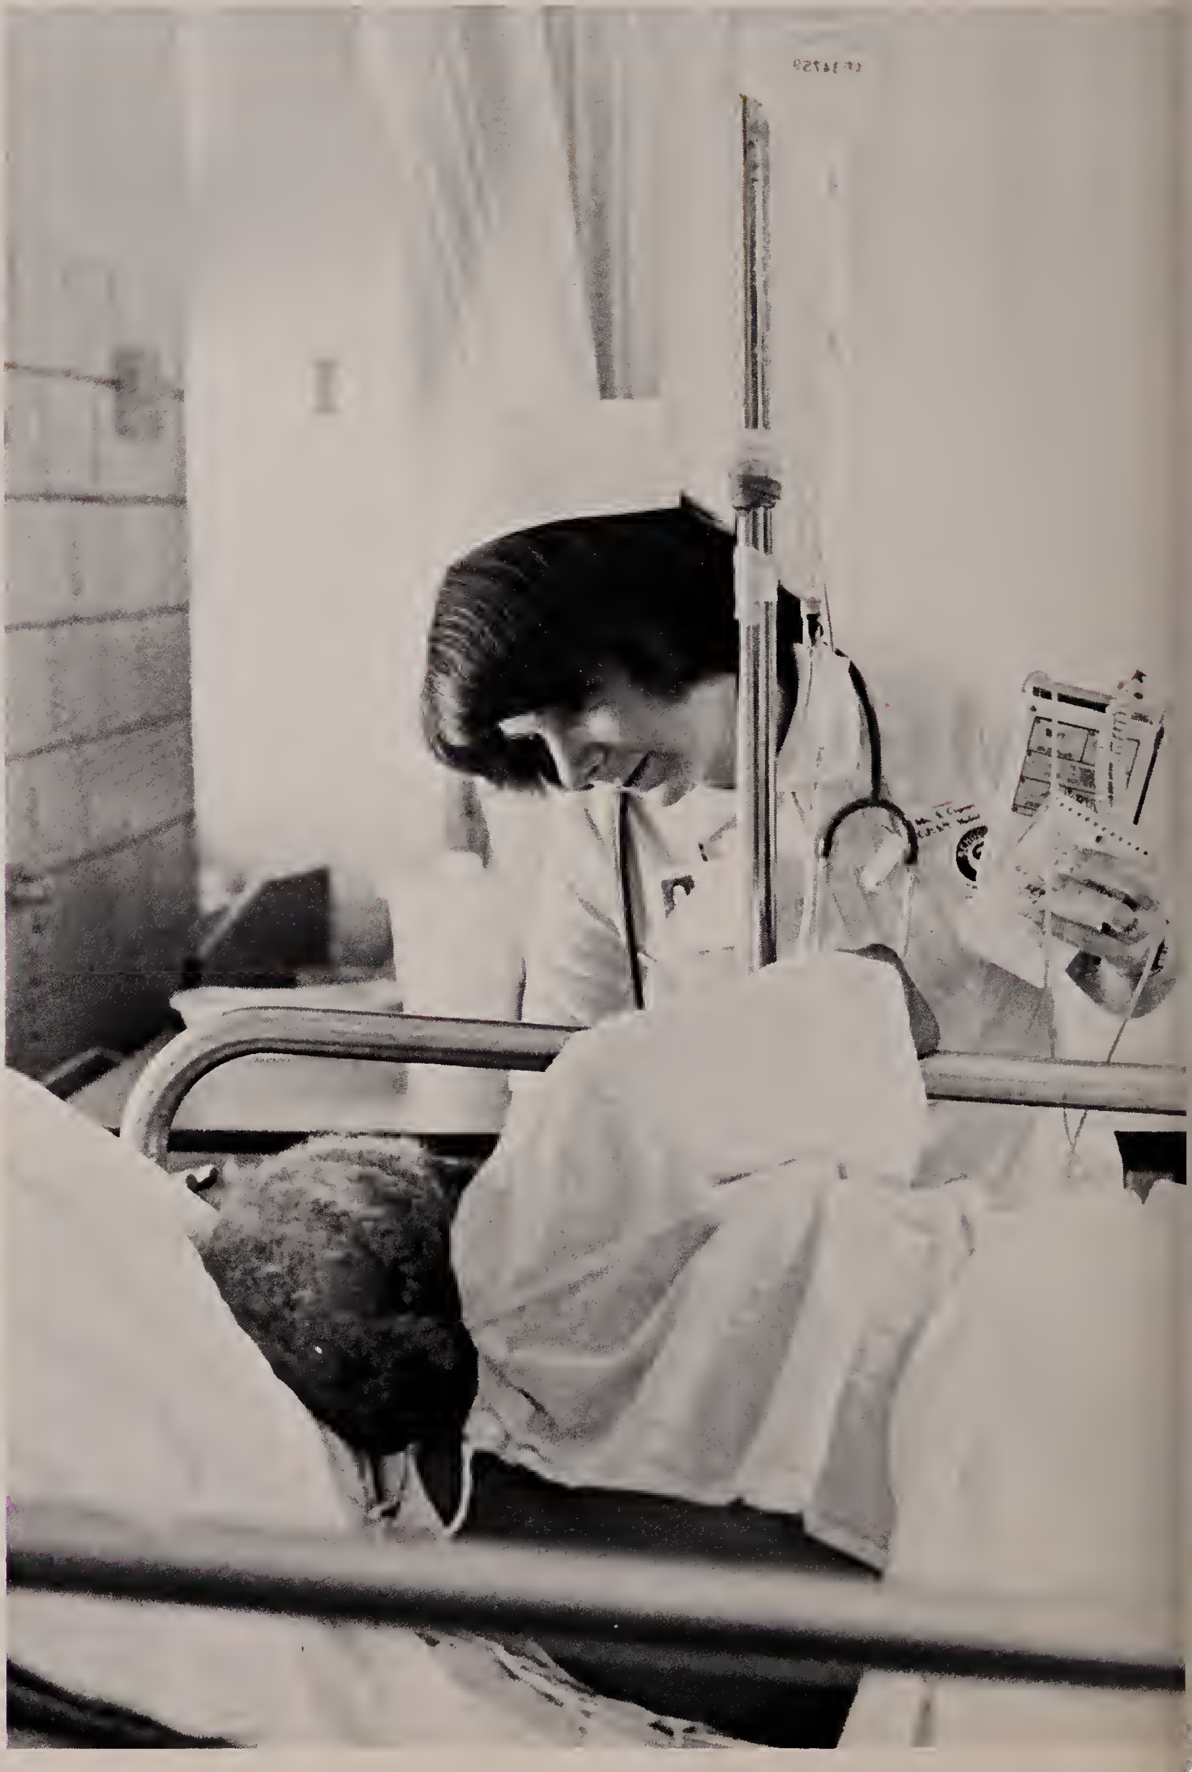
farther than today.

Longfellow





EXPECTATIONS

From dawn till dusk I sit here before my door and know that all of a sudden, the happy moment will arrive when I shall see . . . In the meanwhile the air is filled up with the perfume of promise.

Nursing. Is this really what I want? I look at a nurse performing her duties with confidence, patience, knowledge, and skill. Is it possible for me to become a good, efficient nurse performing with such excellence?

First semester: communication techniques . . . total A.M. care . . . vital signs . . . C.P.R. . . . transcribing orders, charting . . . process recording . . . history forms . . . first care plan.

Second Semester: Injections and medications . . . history forms, care plans on every patient . . . adaptation . . . wound care . . . IV's . . . total patient care.

How could I have learned so much in just one year? Slowly, but surely, I am becoming the nurse I want to be.

INTAKE AND OUTPUT

Intake and Output is CHSN's newsletter publication that seeks to provide students with up-to-date information about current activities. Mike Yates is editor and Debbie Berger is coordinator and typist.

CAPS AND CAPES 1978

The job of compiling a book that depicts life at Charity Hospital School of Nursing is not an easy one. Long hours are spent doing layouts, writing copy, taking, developing and printing pictures, and going to meetings where many times, all you learn is what you've been doing wrong. It's not a very glorifying job for the few people who work so hard. However, it is a rewarding job, because, when it's all over and all the deadlines have been met, there is a lifestyle on what at one time were just empty pages. We, the yearbook staff, would like to thank you for allowing us to express ourselves, and we would like to thank the Administration for allowing us to continue this tradition.
